Build a Book to Hold Your Secrets for students in grades 9-12

Wednesday, August 2nd 2:30 pm– 3:30 pm

We will use old library books to build a place to put your secrets.

Registration is required.

Chocolate/Make and Take Program for students in grades 9-12

Monday, July 31st 3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Kim Larkin from Klassic Kreationz will highlight young chocolate entrepreneurs, explore the history of chocolate, and include a fun trivia quiz. Make and take chocolate creations.

Registration is required.

Crochet with Plastic Yarn: Planning for the Whole Family for students age 10 and up their families

Tuesdays, July 11th, 18th, 25th, and August 1st from 2:30 - 3:30.

Learn how to crochet mats out of plastic grocery bags. Families are encouraged to bring their own bags. A basic understanding of how to crochet would be beneficial.

Registration is required.

Tuesday, July 11th 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Liz Barbour from The Creative Feast will go over the benefits of buying local and eating within the season. Followed by a cooking demonstration of recipes featuring locally harvested seasonal ingredients.

Registration is required.

Laugh Out Loud at the Library Improv Workshop for students age 12 and older

Tuesday, June 27th 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m.

Fun workshop teaching techniques and skills used by improvisers to think quickly, boost confidence, and create hilarious scenes on the spot!

Registration is required.

Going to programs is only half the fun of Summer Reading.

Don't forget to sign up to receive a Reading Log. With the Reading Log you can keep track of the time that you spend reading and earn prizes.

Sign up for a Reading Log at <http://agawamlibrary.org/teens/>

Then come to the Children's Room to pick up your Reading Log.

These programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Agawam Public Library, the Agawam Cultural Council, the Agawam Center Library Association, the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners, and the Boston Bruins.
