

THE BOOKCASE

Agawam Public Library's Newsletter

Edited by Wendy McAnanama

May 2014

For those without money, the road to the treasure house of the imagination begins at the public library.

~Pete Hamill, New York Daily News, February 25, 2002

Friends' Booksale is May 16th & 17th !!!

AuthorTalk with M.P. Barker author of Mending Horses

Author M. P. Barker will present her latest book, Mending Horses, on Monday, May 5th at 7:00.

This deeply moving sequel to her first novel, A Difficult Boy, weaves an indelible piece of historical fiction into a gripping adventure that explores themes of patience, courage, kindness and the meaning of family.

Barker is the author of two non-fiction titles and is also a freelance historical consultant.

Ben Boone Visits for Mental Health Awareness Month

On Monday, May 19th at 7:00, author Ben Boone will read from and discuss his book Minority of Mind, in honor of Mental Health Awareness Month.

Minority of Mind details Boone's personal struggle with schizophrenia in early adulthood. He wrote the book for families as well as to challenge how society defines mental illness, hoping to help others by offering a better understanding of the thought processes and emotions behind some of the symptoms of schizophrenia. For more info, visit <http://virginvoices.vi/Minorityofmind>.

Please visit www.agawamlibrary.org, or call 789-1550 x4, to register. This event is sponsored by the ACLA.

May Exhibits

Gallery Walls - Joshuah Chaisson
"Light Photography"

Double Glass Cases - Robert Beaudry
Woodcarvings

The APL welcomes artists, artisans, and special interest exhibits. Anyone interested in displaying work should contact Adult Services Librarian Joanne Szlag at 789-1550 x8851 or jszlag@agawamlibrary.org. The art must meet with the APL's criteria for viewing.

11-Year-Old Photographer Joshua Chaisson Has Exhibit

For the month of May, the APL will display the "Light Photography" of 11-year-old Agawam photographer Joshuah Chaisson.

The Doering Middle School student has been taking photographs for two years and enjoys the process of creating his own unique images.

The public is welcome to meet Joshuah on Saturday, May 3rd from 2-4 during his first Art Show reception. All photos will be for sale. Joshuah's goal is to raise enough money to purchase new camera equipment.

Woodcarving Exhibit by Robert Beaudry

Robert Beaudry, member of the NE Wood Carvers, the National Woodcarvers Association and four-time winner of the NE Wood Carvers annual competition, will offer the first public showing of his art at the library in May.

Beaudry began working with wood in 1984 as a designer and builder of simple cabinetry projects. His passion for woodcarving was sparked in 1992, after viewing master carver Dimitry Klitzas' work and attending his classes.

Beaudry's work features a variety of woods, ranging from white oak to jatoba. The pieces are never stained or painted due to his belief in the natural beauty of wood.

"Literary Elements" is the Theme of Adult SRP 2014

This summer we will again be joining over 50 other library systems that will use the theme "Literary Elements" as part of the Collaborative Summer Library Program. CSLP is sponsored by the Agawam Center Library Association, the MA Library System, the MA Board of Library Commissioners and the Boston Bruins.

SRP reading begins on June 23rd and continues through August 15th with a raffle at 3:00! More information on our kick-off event READLocal 2014 and a listing of summer programs will be available June 1st on Channel 15, on the APL's website, in local papers and the "Literary Elements" display located by the booksale shelves.

Babysitting Basics

A Babysitting Basics program will be held at the Agawam Library on Wednesdays, May 7, 14, 21 & 28 from 5:30-6:30 for students in grades 5 and up.

The program will offer a wide range of information, including health and safety issues, which will be covered by members of the Agawam Police, Fire and Health departments. Certificates will be given to those who fulfill all program requirements.
